REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE CONFIDENT

Election Day Finds Senator Harding Well Assured That on His Fifty-fifth Birthday His Fellow Citizens Will Present to Him the Highest Office in Their Gift.

Marion, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Election day found Senator Warren Harding confident of victory. The confidence was partially inspired by last minute telegrams from various parts of the country to the Republican presidential candidate, assuring him that the Republican strength was unwavering and would be more than sufficient for his election. He was assured that Indiana, Illinois, New Jersey and New York would go Republican.

Weather conditions were not good in the Ohio valley, but the Senator expressed his confidence that the rural vote, considered largely Republican, especially in Ohio, would go to the polls, since so many of the farmers have automobiles. It was raining at Marion early today.

Today was the Senator's fifty-fifth birthday and he will know by tonight whether the nation will make him a birthday present of its highest office and endorse the policy he has preached during the past 14 weeks.

The Senator arose leisurely, had breakfast and then with Mrs. Harding went to their precinct about 9 a. m. and voted. The voting booths were in a garage and newspaper men and photographers formed a gallery.

PARTY LEADERS MAKE CONFLICTING CLAIMS OF VICTORY

By Staff Correspondent

Lisbon, Nov. 2.—Vote soliciting has ended, a season of campaign oratory has closed, and Tuesday morning the office seeker and his oratorical friends gave way to the majority—the voter—to render the verdict.

There has been far more activity displayed by the Republican party in the present campaign this fall, than has been noted in previous years.

The Democratic party, which has remained a minority in Columbiana county in most all presidential campaigns, has not developed such activity as has characterized the work of the Republican wing.

A survey of the rural districts gives early indication that the voters will not depart from treading the Republican path. Even on the county ticket, there has been strong support shown for the entire Republican ticket.

The crowd of strangers in Lisbon Monday was such that it reminded one of a bright summer market day, when those from the rural districts "came to town." Both men and women were active about the Republican county headquarters, bringing in reports of the most favorable character relative to the Republican ticket in this and that community.

Not a few of these country folks made it plain that where they supported this or that Democratic candidate in the past, they were out to vote the straight Republican ticket Tuesday. Men of course made these statements, as women had no part in previous elections.

Marked apathy was noted here Monday among the Democratic voters. The proudness they displayed even a fortnight ago was noticeable because of its absence, all of which gave the impression that they scented a lost cause.

WOMEN ARE USING NEW VOTING RIGHT IN LARGE NUMBERS

Washington, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Reports received this morning by the National Womans' party indicate a woman's vote which will come up to the estimate of Mrs. Maud Wood Park, chairman of the National League of Women Voters who predicts that 15,000,000 women will go to the polls today and perhaps exceed it.

Two things are being watched with special interest by the women leaders here—the results of the congressional elections and the woman vote in the south.

Five women are candidates for the United States senate and about fifteen for the lower house of congress.

At the National Womans' party interest centered on Nevada where Mrs. Anne Martin, prominent member of the organization, has been waging a picturesque campaign for election to the United States senate as an independent candidate.

The woman vote in the south is an object of special interest because of the contention made during the suffrage fight that the women there did not want the ballot.

The reports received here based on the registration records indicate a heavy woman vote in most of the southern state. The negro women are reported active in many sections. In two states—Georgia and Mississippi—the women will not participate in the election, suffrage having come too late for registration.

THROWS AWAY RADIUM

Utica, N. Y., Nov. 2.—(Special.)—In an effort to locate a milligram of radium valued at $13,000 carelessly dropped by a woman patient in the Faxton hospital here yesterday workmen began to dig up the sewers in the vicinity of the hospital.

The mineral was the property of Dr. George M. Fischer of this city and was being used on the woman's breast in the hope of curing cancer. Because it irritated her, the woman, who did not appreciate the value of the radium, went to a bathroom, took the bandage off and threw it way.

FATAL BOILER EXPLOSION

Akron, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Engineer Reisch, Youngstown, and an unknown flagman, also of Youngstown, were instantly killed at 7 o'clock this morning when a B. & O. engine boiler exploded a mile west of Sterling station. The flagman was riding in the engine cab at the time of the accident. No cause for the explosion has been ascertained.

Red Cross Home Service Report Shows Excellent Work Done This Year

Since January the work of caring for the ills and troubles of the ex-service men has continued. In January the Home Service section did its first extension work. This means that the services rendered the ex-service men and their families were extended to all the civilian population of Salem. This work was formerly done by the Salem Council of Social Agencies. Just what constructive family social work is, and just what we are prepared to do in Salem will be told later by Miss Leach, our social Home Service Worker.

The Home Service work was carried on by Mrs. Woodruff, assisted by Cloyd Harris, Miss Leach still doing visiting in the civilian families. In June, Mss Leach was employed by the Red Cross as the secretary of the Home Service Section, thus relieving Mrs. Woodruff. Mr. Harris is still visiting the ex-service men and his work is indispensible.

A new card system has been nstalled whereby a closer record can be kept of all information given out by this section. Up until now we have only kept a record of the more important inquiries. The new system will enable anyone to go into the office and look at the day cards and see just what is being done in the office.

February 1920, was our busiest month caused by the second "flu" epidemic. The constant cry, day and night, was for nurses. All the workers at the Community house worked together to relieve the situation as much as possible. Mr. Mullins, through the Red Cross, offered $50 a week for volunteers. All but five of these were practical nurses. With a few exceptions the work done by them was very satisfactory and certainly relieved the suffering in many families. Soup was made at the Community house and also by several volunteers in their homes. Soup materials and different varieties of milk pudding were donated. These were taken around to families where no one was able to prepare food. Mr. Mullins kindly gave us the use of his car and chauffer to deliver the food prepared. Mr. Mullins paid to the special volunteer nursing fund $775. The amount received from families for nursing services was $116.20 making the total amount $891.20. The nurses were paid $835.80. We still have in the fund $55.40. We also spent a little more than $165 from our

RED CROSS CHAPTER EQUIPS EMERGENCY FEVER HOSPITALS FOR IMMEDIATE SERVICE

The work of equipping the Red Cross emergency hospitals for aiding in the care of typhoid fever patients in this city is progressing rapidly today and in a few hours a well furnished emergency hospital will be in perfect running order. The local Red Cross chapter executive board has been in frequent session yesterday and today and has made liberal arrangements for taking care of the local epidemic situation, having at its command all the resources of the entire Lake division organization which may be needed to properly handle the local emergency.

Workers have been busy all day putting in the beds and other equipment at the old school building at the corner of Chestnut and Green streets which had been turned over to the Red Cross for use as an emergency institution. The equipment which is being installed is most complete and will furnish to local physicians who may have patients in the Red Cross hospital most satisfactory conditions as to care for them.

Additional public health nurses arrived in the city this morning and are already busy with their duties looking after the sick, and others are being brought in today. The working force which will be put into the field here by the Red Cross will be limited only by the needs as they may be shown from time to time. Everything will be done that is necessary to give all needed aid to the local health forces in combatting the typhoid fever epidemic and in taking proper care of all the sick of the community.

The local Red Cross chapter has taken over as the basis of its special work a ward of 14 beds on the first floor of the city hospital.. Additional to this is the emergency hospital which is being fitted up today in the Chestnut street school building, which will accommodate about 45 patients. Should there be need beyond these two special arrangements, plans have been made which can be carried out on short notice by which additional beds will be placed in the Pioneer block and a third emergency station opened there.

Health Officer Dr. R. M. Schwartz today said that there had been reported to him 227 cases of fever, there being no additional cases reported today.

CANDIDATES AND WIVES VOTE AMID CHEERS OF ONLOOKERS

Dayton, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Governor James M. Cox and Mrs. Cox stood in line for 20 minutes today with a chilly wind blowing, before they cast their ballot in a little barber shop at Carrimont, near Dayton. About 75 men, women and children were at the voting place at the village where the governor's car drew up from Trailsend, his country place nearby.

As tre crowd recognized the automobile, a lusty cheer went up which was the signal for the popping of heads through hastily opened windows in adjoining houses, while more men and women, many of them dragging children by the hand, came hurrying to the scene.

Mrs. Cox brought her ballot at 10:03 a. m. It was numbered 245. The governor drew 246 half a minute later.

Marion, Nov. 2. — Jollying with camera men, shaking hands with scores of neighbors whom he met at the voting place in his precinct and beaming upon all, Senator Warren G. Harding cast his ballot at 10:29 a. m. today and handed it to an election judge three minutes later. His voting number was 304 and he cast his ballot as high powered incandescent lights gave a movie studio glare to the large private garage which served as precinct headquarters.

Mrs. Harding, who cast her first vote for her husband as president, cast her ballot two minutes ahead of the Senator.

The rain had stopped and the day was chilly and cloudy. The Senator and Mrs. Harding drove from their home three blocks distance to Precinct C in Ward four, and, after shaking hands with a dozen women who had gathered outside, entered the garage where several scores of voters and spectators greeted them with handclapping.

AGED WOMAN WALKS TO POLLS

It is probaly that she is the oldest women to vote in this city.

THOMAS MEAD FALLS DEAD WHILE VOTING AT TOWN HALL IN GOSHEN

Thomas Mead, aged 76 years, a well known resident of Goshen township, died suddenly this morning about 9 o'clock at the Goshen township hall where he had gone to cast his ballot.

Mr. Mead, who has been suffering from heart disease for some time, went to the polls accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. E. K. Minser. He received his ballots from the election officers and entered the voting booth, where he was taken ill. He left the booth and sat down in the room near by. After completing his ballots he handed them over to the election officers and after they were deposited in the ballot boxes he rose and left the building. He had gone about ten feet from the door when he fell and died almost instantly.

Thomas Mead was born, the son of John and Caroline Mead, in Goshen township, where he lived his entire life except one year spent in Salem. He was married about 54 years ago to Miss Elizabeth Davis, daughter of Samuel and Sarah Davis. They celebrated their golden wedding.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. E. K. Minser, at whose home he had lived since the death of his wife, and two brothers, G. K. Mead of Marlboro, and Charles W. Mead, of Salem.

The funeral service will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of E. K. Minser, on the Goshen road. Burial will be in Grandview Burial park.

CANDIDATES MUST FILE STATEMENTS BY NOV. 12

Candidates for county offices on both the Democratic and Republican tickets have until Friday, November 12, in which to file statements of their campaign expenses. Each candidate must file a statement as to all money spent between the primary and the general election.

B. Frank Murphy, of Steubenville, Republican nominee for congress from the Eighteenth Ohio district, has filed a pre-election statement with the clerk of the national house of representatives in which he declares he has spent $875 in his campaign. Albert G. Barnes, Democratic nominee, spent $133.95 in the interests of his candidacy.

HEAVY VOTE CAST EARLY BY WOMEN

In Spite of Unfavorable Weather Newly Enfranchised Women Voters Flock Early to Polls and Register a Record-Breaking Poll During Morning Hours.

Indications this morning pointed to a heavy vote being polled in this city. It is expected that a record vote, totaling nearly 3000 will be cast today before the polls are closed. Early this morning at certain precincts in the city where the vote is always light until the afternoon vote is cast, it was reported that over 100 ballots had been cast, with very few of the shopmen casting their vote. In various precincts the totals will be more than doubled by the afternoon vote.

It was expected that the rainy weather would hinder the vote to some extent, but in some cases it will no doubt increase the totals. Reports from the voting precinct for Perry township, early this morning, about 10:30, showed that there was nearly 100 votes cast, about one-third of these being by women voters. The rural district vote is increased by the inclement weather for a number of farmers would not vote if the weather permitted them to perform their farm duties. Farmers are arriving in town and a record vote is predicted.

Women are taking advantage of their voting privilege. Starting this morning about 9 o'clock, they jammed the polls and cast their ballots with the confidence and the experience of old voters. In several precincts up town, in the business section, the greatest number of ballots cast between 9 o'clock and 11 o'clock were cast by women. In several precincts the women's vote was greater than the number cast by the men. In Precinct A of the Second ward, out of 81 votes cast at 10:30 three-fourths of them were credited to women.

Several other precincts have reported a heavy polling by women. At one precinct this morning a number of women formed in line and waited in the rain for their turn to cast their ballot. A large percentage of the women's votes are expected to be cast this afternoon.

The total number of votes cast in this city will be given out to the public this afternoon directly after the polls close at 6:30. The News will tabulate the totals as soon as the different precincts have been counted

COX CLOSES CAMPAIGN AT TOLEDO WITH PLEA FOR WILSON LEAGUE

Toledo, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Governor Cox, the Democratic presidential candidate closed his campaign here last night as he began it three months ago with a plea that the election today decide in favor of America's entrance into the league of nations. He predicted his election at the polls today was a certainty that his success would be a victory for a cause not a victory for a political party.

Two large audiences, numbering many thousands, heard his speeches and as he closed his last plea for the league, his words were that its acceptance by the United States mean "peace on earth, good will to men."

The governor's visit to this city was to keep faith with a political superstition his party followers here asserting that his only defeat at the polls was when he did not close his campaign here on election evee.

FORMER CONDUCTOR WINS NOBEL PRIZE FOR LITERATURE

Chicago, Nov. 2—(Special.)—Knute Hamsun, Norwegian author and formerly a conductor on the Old Halstead street horse car line here back in the early '80s, has won the 1920 Noble prize for literature, friends learned today. Hamsum came here from North Dakota where he had worked on a farm and after being discharged from the horse car line because he read books instead of collecting fares and ringing bells, he went east and obtained a berth on a New Foundland Banks fishing boat. He returned to Norway in the early '90s and 1893 brought out his first volume—his collection of "Pan" poems.

FARM CREDIT URGED

Washington, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Extension of immediate credit relief to farmers by executive action pending the reconvening of congress was asked of President Wilson by George P. Hampton of the Farmers' National council. In company with William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, Mr. Hampton, called upon Secretary Tumulty, who is understood to have promised to present the request to the president at once.

COUNTY SEAT WOMEN GO EARLY TO POLLS

Lisbon, Nov. 2.—In spite of weather conditions a large vote is being polled in Lisbon today. Up until noon 918 had voted in the five town precincts, fully 60 per cent of whom were women. In the two township precincts 223 votes had been polled, about one-third of which had been cast by farmers' wives and daughters. Most of the shop men will vote during the afternoon, some of the plants closing down while others are giving the men two hours off.

The indications are that a very large per cent of the women are voting mixed tickets in spite of the fact that they had been advised to vote straight to avoid mistakes. The first votes cast in nearly all the precincts were by women they having been advised to vote early. Many of them came like those Israelites of old, 'while it was yet dark."

HEAVY SNOWFALL IN WEST

Chicago, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Reports last night from several states told of snow while political observers say may have some effect on the total vote cast in those sections. The heaviest fall was in Fremont county, Wyoming, where 25 inches of snow covered the ground. In Nebraska and South Dakota, a heavy snow was reported in a number of countiles, while Minnesota reported snow in some districts and rain in others.

Commissioners Hedge On Road Project Where Claimants Ask Damages

By Staff Correspondent

Lisbon, Nov. 2.—When folks appear before the board of county commissioners and make an appeal for an improved road, and then come back at the commissioners for excessive damages before the road is built, it has been decreed that no such roads will be improved.

Claims for damages on the Bell school route of the East Liverpool-Youngstown road were filed with the county commissioners Monday, which was the last day for presenting such claims. These claims totaled $9,150.

The state highway department designated the Bell school route as the line of road in St. Clair and Middleton township, although a rather stiff opposition was presented by those who favored the Sprucevale route.

Now come the following property owners on the Bell school route who have asked damages from the county, it being alleged the building of the road would damage their property: Charles Robinson, $4,500; John R. Lyon, $3,000; Harvey T. Hole, $700; trustees Clarkson Presbyterian church, $200; Mary E. Huston, $700; Harry Wollam, $50.

A search of the tax duplicate on file in the office of County Auditor Charles E. Hamilton, shows that the property of Mr. Robinson is listed as follows: "Lands $2,880, buildings $540," a total of $3,420. For compensation and damages from the county because of the building of the new Bell school road Mr. Robinson has filed a claim for $4,500.

John R. Lyons, according to the tax duplicate, has his 160 acres of land listed at $5,870 and buildings at $770, or a total of $6,640. Compensation and damages are sought by Mr. Lyon at $3,000.

The other four claims for damages the commissioners make little comment about.

Now come forward the folks who favor the Sprucevale route, and make plain to the commissioners that no damage claims will be filed by the property owners on that route. These

MEN RETURNING TO TEACHING

Attracted by the higher trend of salaries and the increase of technical and economic courses in study outlines, men are returning to the teaching field in considerable numbers. This applies not only to colleges where the dearth of male teachers was less apparent, but to the public schools as well, including the rural districts, where men had practically disappeared from the teaching ranks.

The man's point of view is just as essential a part of a comprehensive school training as it is of home training, especially after boys and girls have passed the primary grades. Even in the past, before men left the teaching profession for more lucrative positions in such numbers as they have of late years, there were still too few of them for the best good of education.

It is therefore cause for satisfaction that a better policy is again attracting men to the public schools. Many of them are peculiarly fitted for the work, and it is just as great a pity for such talents to be lost to the cause of education as for the artist or the musician or the engineer to miss his calling. Wisdom points to a continuance of such policies, financial and educational, as shall keep good men in this service.

OUTWITTING THE FOG

Fog makes it equally difficult for either the great steamship or the towing tug to make or leave its dock in safety. Some method for defeating this age-long enemy has been sought by navigators for centuries. The navy has been experimenting with a sound guide which seems to indicate the search is ended.

The guide consists of a cable laid in the middle of the ship channel and highly charged with electricity. Earlike receivers on the ship's sides take up the sounds made by the electric current in the cable and convey them to the navigating officer listening at his station. When the sounds come with equal clearness from both sides he knows his ship is directly over the cable. A weakening in either direction tells him the ship is veering and she can be straightened up. The destroyer Semmes came into New York harbor the other day with all her pilot windows shrouded, relying only upon this device for her direction. She made her dock without difficulty or accident.

Should the sound guide prove wholly successful under further tests its elimination of the delays and dangers which fog has precipitated hitherto will be of the greatest importance to all navigation.

HOUSE MANAGER

The registration sheet now lists the housewife as "House Manager," the intention being to give her labor the status it deserves in industry. This is a long step from the days when wives and mothers were listed as having "no occupation." But how many women really deserve the title?

How many who smilingly assent to "House Manager," keep an accurate account of income and expenditure, a budget to insure wise disbursement of funds, and really know where expenses may safely be reduced or logically increased. How many of them understand the conservation of energy and know the most efficient methods for accomplishing household labor, or can demand and secure such conservation and efficiency in those who work for them?

A steady increasing number of women undoubtedly deserve the new title. New vistas of interest and freedom opening up to them will enable them to become managers of their homes in fact as well as name, running them so far as is possible in accordance with the solid principles of business and domestic science.

FROM OUR READERS

Keeping Food Clean

Editor News—The nightly statements to the effect that everything possible is being done to check the typhoid epidemic are comforting—but are the health authorities correct in making such reports?

It is definitely established and well known that flies carry typhoid germs. Today the restaurants of the city are guilty of taking no precautions to prevent the spreading of the disease in that way. Food is exposed on the counters with large numbers of flies crawling over it. Screens for doors and windows have been removed. Apparently the flies will be permitted to fast indefinitely and spread the germs as the fly about.

"Swat the Fly" may be a good slogan but it does not keep the flies out of places where they do not belong.

In its present affliction, Salem should demand in its public eating places absolute cleanliness and every possible safeguard against the spreading of germs.

PARTY LEADERS

has been puredicted by County Chairman Charles E. Hamilton of the Republican central committee, who after receiving reports from every part of Columbiana up to 11:30 o'clock last night, declared that Columbiana county would roll up a majority of 5,000 or more for Senator Warren G. Harding for president and that Harry Davis would receive a majority of 4,000 or more over his opponent.

Mr. Hamilton made this pre-election statement:

"On the eve of election everything indicates a sweeping Republican victory.

"Republicans all over the county have responded nobly and have given the greatest assistance during the campaign just closed. The new element in politics, the women voters, have entered into the work with enthusiasm and deserve special commendation.

"Notwithstanding the desperate efforts of our opponents to influence and prejudice the voters, especially the women voters, this county will give a greatly increased majority for all Republican candidates on all tickets, national, state and county.

"Information at hand indicates a majority for Harding for president over Cox, in the county of at least 5,000.

"Davis for governor will receive majority over Donahey of not less than 4,000 and the entire Republican ticket will be given the largest majority in the history of the county."

The Democratic county central committee made no claim for carrying Columbiana county, in its pre-election statement last night. "It would be too much to claim the county for the entire ticket," the statement reads, which in detail is as follows:

"We confidently predict that there will be a greater percentage of Democratic votes cast in Columbiana county than ever before in its history. We firmly believe that Governor Cox will carry the county by a small majority.

"We predict the women voters—the great unknown quanity in this election will give their endorsement to the league of nations irrespective of their party choice. We are of the opinion that while it would be too much to claim the county for the entire ticket we believe Judge Crawford will easily lead the ticket and will be elected by a greater majority than four years ago.

"The state looks sure for Cox as does the nation.

"Indications point to a Democratic victory in the gubernatorial contest. Donahey will receive the largest vote ever given a Democratic candidate in this county."

BOTH PARTIES IN GOOD LUCK

Passengers in Auto and Odoriferous "Pussies" Alike Went on Their Way Rejoicing.

An unusual sight was witnessed last week on the road to Onset. A party of Brocktonians were autoing to Bournehurst and on the road this side of Onset there suddenly appeared a black and white patch. The machine approached the spot at a fast rate and as it drew nearer the mass straightened out into a line across the road. There was a gasp of astonishment—and of dismay, also, for the black-and-white mass proved to be a mother skunk leading four little ones across the street. They were moving very slowly, so slowly indeed that it was impossible to stop the car before it reached them.

Admonitions of "Don't hit them" were not necessary to the driver of the machine, but he was wondering how he was going to miss them. As luck would have it, the mother skunk just then separated herself from the four little ones and the machine passed right over her without harming a hair of the odorous animal.

The passengers, looking back, saw the mother polecat huddled in the road, while her offspring had turned and were streaking it across the highway and over the railway tracks into the friendly bushes. They were right in the path of an approaching trolley car, but negotiated the retreat without a casualty. Probably the unharmed but dazed mother rejoined her little flock later. Had the auto and the skunks met in collision it must have cast a gloom over subsequent proceedings for the car and its cargo.—Brockton Enterprise.

Accidents Take Heavy Toll.

Every year 11,037,000 persons are hurt in various kinds of accidents, and 150,000 are killed. That's according to the statistics of the health and accident underwriters' conference. TRULY IN BUSINESS FOR FUN

Lord Leverhulme, English Millionaire, Explains Why, at 80, He Will Not Quit the Game.

Lord Leverhulme recently told a good story to show why business men work as hard as they do. It is not for the money, he said, as much as for the sheer fun of it.

A man named Tyson, he said, went out to Australia in the early days. He now has sheep farms in Queensland, New South Wales, Victoria, and South Australia. He has millions of sheep and cattle, yet he lives as simply as one of his own stockmen.

He is now eighty years of age—hale and hearty. When he was asked why he worked so hard and lived like a workman, he replied that it was not a matter of money at all.

"I have put sheep where there were no sheep," he said; "cattle where there were no cattle—houses where there were no houses—white men where there were only black men before. That is the fun I get out of it."

PLEBES IN WEST POINT ARE 630

NEW CLASS HAS MORE FROM THE RANKS OF THE ARMY THAN EVER BEFORE.

ENTRANCE IS FACILITATED

Seven Preparatory Schools Opened to Coach Soldiers for the Entrance Examinations — Inducements Offered for Enlistment in the Navy.

Washington.—The new class of "plebes" at the United States Military academy at West Point is 630 strong and includes the largest number of appointees from the ranks of the army in the history of West Point, with 60 former buck privates enrolled. Prior to 1916 soldiers could enter the military academy from the ranks only upon appointment by their congressmen, but today recruits after one year's service with the colors, between nineteen and twenty-two years of age, who can pass the entrance examination, are eligible without political assistance.

Major General Harris, the adjutant general, announces that any young high school graduate enlisting, whose record is clear, may enter West Point on the first entrance date after one year of service. Enlisted men between the ages of seventeen and twenty-four who have served honorably and faithfully for not less than one year in the armed forces of the United States or the allied armies in the World war, possessing the other requisite qualifications, may be admitted on July 1, 1921. The other enlisted candidates must have served for one year in the regular army prior to July 1, 1921, and be between the ages of nineteen and twenty-two.

Seven Preparatory Schools.

Seven preparatory schools have been opened, at Camp Dix, N. J.; Camp Devens, Mass.; Camp Lewis, Wash.; Camp Travis, Tex., and Camp Gordon, Ga., as well as in Coblenz, Germany, and Panama, for the purpose of preparing soldiers for the entrance examinations. These candidates also have the option of a three months' furlough for special study and coaching. World war service applies equally to young men who were drafted or enlisted and includes the National Guard as well as the army. After 1921, age qualifications revert to the old limits of nineteen to twenty-two for enlisted men. The West Point course has been changed back to four years instead of three.

The secretary of the navy has directed a special campaign to be undertaken to fill the remaining vacancies in the ranks of the enlisted personnel of the navy by offering special inducements. Notwithstanding the fact that the navy is now recruiting more than ever before, except in war time, the realization that the navy man in peace time is the one who must be qualified to defend the country in the first line of battle in war has resulted in the navy's never consenting to lower the high standards of its men.

The secretary says that there are 9,568 young men studying specialties in navy schools. From these men will be drawn the skilled specialists of the navy. There are left 4,700 vacancies in the schools, and these vacancies have been thrown open to young men of the country in civil life. These schools were formerly kept for previous service men. A new policy has also been developed so that those who like foreign travel will be given opportunities to see the world.

The navy schools are paying special attention to physical development, and the latest statistics show an average gain of ten pounds in weight in four months and gratifying increases in height and chest development.

New Chaplains Appointed.

Major General Harris announces the selection and appointment of 89 new chaplains for the regular army out of 300 applicants who had served as officers throughout the war. This is in conformity with the new reorganization law providing for 240 chaplains, or one to each 1,200 officers and men. All the aspirants were carefully examined by different boards of officers as to their professional, mental and physical qualifications, and the survivors of this test were then carefully looked up from the standpoint of clerical fitness through the various denominational agencies. The clergymen selected have been commissioned with rank from July 1, 1920.

After careful study by representatives of the war department, the proportion of the denominations was tentatively fixed by Secretary of War Baker at 25 per cent for the Roman Catholic church, 70 per cent for the Protestant churches and 5 per cent for adjustments that cannot be made on strictly mathematical apportionment. This conclusion is based on a survey of census reports, as well as the religious census of 1916.

In making the announcement, General Harris adds: "Under the new reorganization law full provision has been made for the moral and spiritual training of our enlisted men. A new corps of chaplains has been created. Their entire effort will be along the lines of character building and proper guidance for the young soldiers under their charge, coupled with the new program of education and occupational training for the troops."

general fund for nursing purposes at this time, making the total cost to the Home Service Section, American Red Cross over $1,000 during the "flu" epidemic.

Our Community chest, and the blankets donated by Mr. Mullins were certainly a God-send at this time. The chest was about emptied and we had to borrow pneumonia jackets from the hospital. What a splendid thing it was to be able to clean some of the patients up. Some had never had a clean white night robe on before and one family was using an old red table cloth for a blanket.

Since January we have visited in 275 homes or places where our clients reside. Now this does not mean that we have made just 275 calls. Some of these families must be called upon at least once a week continually, some only need three or four visits and the case is closed. Out of this number 72 clients have been civilian families. Many seem to have the idea that Salem is practically without ex-service men sugering from the effects of the war. The truth is that we have in the neighborhood of 50 men receiving continual compensation. Of the new cases coming to our attention the greater per cent are tuberculosis cases. Tuberculosis is just beginning to show up on some of our gassed men.

Through efforts of our Home Service section about $12,000 in lump sums and more than $2,500 monthly is coming into this community. It has been hard work to get some of these cases settled. We have not undertaken to get money from the government for one undeserving ex-service man. We do not have the say as to how much compensation a man shall receive. Some have gotten more and many have gotten less than our judgment tells us is right, but our government settles that question so that the Red Cross cannot be criticised in any way. This is just counting those that have received compensation and not those who have just applied.

Mr. Harris has converted and reinstated about $100,000 worth of insurance. Vocational training is being handled in a much more efficient way than heretofore. We have 20 men either in training or approved for training under the vocational board.

We are doing all we can to help the American Legion. They are trying to establish a ladies auxiliary as a part of their organization. They have expressed themselves as wishing to closely co-operate with our Red Cross in the care of all ex-service men and we expect to help them in every way we can.

We must not forget that there is an enormous amount of office work to be done in connection with this work. Records of everything done by this section must be kept on file and it requires many an evening's work by the Social worker in order to keep her cases all written up and the correspondence cleaned up. Miss Leach does her own typewriting work thus doing away with the expense of a stenographer.

All organizations, the county and city officials, have co-operated splendidly with us in our work. Through this co-operation our social service work in the community has been more effective.

We wish to be of service to the whole community in every way possible and to be the "Greatest Mother in the World" to Salem.

Rats Served Good Purpose.

Doctor Kane, the arctic explorer, said that among the worst curses in the far north were the rats that infested his ship. Nevertheless, when in want of other food, he was glad to eat them—sometimes chopped up and frozen into tallow balls. He wrote: "During the long winter night Hans beguiled his hours of watch by shooting rats with bow and arrow. The repugnance of my companions to share with me this table luxury gave me frequent advantage of fresh meat soup, which contributed no doubt to my comparative immunity to scurvy."

World's Oldest Auto Driver.

The world's oldest automobile driver has been discovered.

He is John Crook of Lynton, Devonshire, England. Crook is 93 years old and has been driving a car for the past five months. In that time he has not had an accident and has driven through the densest traffic in London without a trace of hesitation or nervousness.

Mr. Crook intends to start out on a tour of France, Belgium and other parts of the continent.

Aggrieved.

"Do you mind if I smoke?" asked the politician politely.

"Not at all," replied the suffragette. "I'm not in politics for my health."

"But, my dear madam, my cigar is not as bad as that."

Women of Middle Age

Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change in her life without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. Those dreadful hot flashes, smothering spells, fainting spells, nervous troubles and irregularities are symptoms that should have prompt attention. These two letters prove what a successful remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is for women at this time of life.

These Two Women Helped During Change of Life.

Taunton, Mass.—"I could not eat or sleep for six months, had fainting spells and could not walk without help for three months, caused by female trouble. My cousin, who was a doctor, told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me greatly. Then during the Change of Life I used the same remedy. I am seventy years old now and am able to do my own housework and walk one mile to church every Sunday morning and evening. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends having the same troubles as I had. Your remedy is the best on earth. I cannot find words to express my gratitude for it."—Mrs. SUSAN C. STAPLES, 157 B School St., Taunton, Mass.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I want to let you know what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I had organic troubles and am going through the Change of Life. I was taken with a pain in my side and a bad headache. I could not lie down, could not eat or sleep. I suffered something terrible and the doctor's medicine did me no good at all—my pains got worse instead of better. I began taking the Vegetable Compound and felt a change from the first. Now I feel fine and advise any one going through the Change of Life to try it, for it cured me after I had given up all hopes of getting better. I will tell any one who writes to me the good it has done me."—Mrs. MARGARET DANZ, 743 N. 25th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

THIRTY MILLION MEN AND WOMEN AT POLLS

New York, Nov. 2. — (Special.)—Approximately 30,000,000 Americans, men and women are going to the polls today to register their choice for president and vice president of the United States. The number may be greater or it may be less, but political leaders on both sides have agreed that the count of 30,000,000 is a fair forecast.

Four years ago the votes cast was 18,593,022. Since that time upwards of 20,000,000 have been enfranchised. How many of these will use the ballot today can only be conjecteured, politicians say, but they are hopeful that considerably more than half of them will.

At both the Republican and Democrat headquarters today activities had practically ceased. Their work completed, party managers and attaches loafed about, speculating, figuring and receiving reports by telegraph and telephone from all over the country.

Election day dawned cloudy and muggy in many parts of the country. The weather board warned the voters east of the Missouri river that they would have to brave rain to cast their ballot. Generally unsettled weather was reported from many states. The weather reports did not find much favor at Republican head quarters.

REV. PAUL G. KENREICH DIES AT CLEVELAND

Rev. Paul G. Kenreich, aged 39 years, well known in this city and vicinity, died at his home in Lakewood, Cleveland, Sunday evening, October 31, of pneumonia. He was born in Green township, Mahoning county, and was reared there. He attended school in Greenford, and received his college education at St. John's college, Winfield, Kansas. His seminary training was received in Concordia seminary, St. Louis.

Rev. Mr. Kenreich after leaving the seminary served a pastorate for about four years in Baltimore, Md., and from there went to be the minister of the Pilgrim Evangelical Lutheran church, located at Manor Place and Detroit avenue, Lakewood, Cleveland, of which he has been in charge for the past five years. He was married three years ago to Miss Pauline Melching, of York, Pa., who survives him. There are also surviving his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Kenreich, and six brother and three sisters. The funeral service will be held at the Pilgrim Evangelical church, Lakewood, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The burial will be at Cleveland.

INDICATIONS SHOW HEAVY STATE VOTE

Columbus, Nov. 2. — (Special.)—Despite the rain, reports reaching here this morning indicate heavy voting throughout Ohio.

Election dopesters cling to their prediction that the biggest vote in the history of the Buckeye state is being cast today. Political experts expressed the belief that over 2,000,000 votes will be polled in Ohio today. This belief is based upon the advent of the woman vote and the normal increase of male voters coupled with the intense interest displayed by those who voted in past years.

Secretary of State Smith has voiced the belief that over 700,000 Ohio women will vote today and about 1,400,000 men.

The rainy weather is not expected to give either of the big political parties any material advantage over the other.

COMMISSIONERS HEDGE

people contend that should the county pay the excessive damage claims as asked by those on the Bell school route, the latter road will be "out of the running," as it will cost more to build the Bell school route than the Sprucevale route. However, it has been contended that the Bell school route could be built at less cost than the Sprucevale route. If the county is called upon to pay $10,000 compensation and damage claims on the Bell school route, then the improvement will be diverted to the Sprucevale route, and the county be in pocket.

Some property owners along the Bell school route were before the commissioners Monday and were shocked at the number and amounts asked by some of the property owners along that right of way. At the same time there were those from the Sprucevale route, and they were more than pleased with the turn in events.

For the time being preliminary work on the Bell school route has been held up. Sprucevale route boosters have not given up hope of securing the new inter-county highway.

STOP PAYING OUTSIDE AID

Lisbon, Nov. 2.—Examiner Garrison of the State Bureau of Accounting, who is here going over the books of the county, notified the commissioners and Superintendent Lyle B. Harris of the county infirmary that they must stop paying outside aid to poor people out of the infirmary fund. For some years past all outside relief has been paid by the infirmary department and charged up to the infirmary account. BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

D.S. MEDALS TO BE GIVEN NAVY AND MARINE WAR HEROES

Washington, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—The long delay in awarding medals for distinguished wartime service in the navy and marine corps is about to be ended, it was learned today at the navy department. The decorations which were held up while a naval board reconsidered the awards after a controversy among naval officers and a subsequent congressional investigation last winter have been mailed to commanding officers of ships and stations for distribution either on Armistice day, November 11, or Armistice Sunday, November 14.

The revised list of those to receive the awards was not made public and it was said that it would not be released until the medals were actually presented. It was understood however, that since the original list was sent back to the board headed by Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight for review and revison, a number of names had been added. The original list included 13 persons to receive the medal of honor, while the revised list, it was said provides for 19 to receive the highest military honor.

It was not disclosed at the department whether the names of Rear Admiral Sims and other officers who declined to accept medals last winter were on the final list.

NERVOUSNESS

A woman suffering all of the many annoying and depressing symptoms of nervousness, after taking medicine for years, found that her trouble was due to an imperfect condition of one of the joints in the neck. This abnormality was very slight, but like a small pebble in the shoe, it was sufficient to keep one of the nerves continually irritated. Defective neck-joint was the CAUSE, general nervousness the EFFECT. Chiropractic Vertebral Adjustments relieved the nerve pressure and the nervous condition disappeared. See your Chiropractor. Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about $2. Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE WILL TRY TO CLEAR DOCKETS OF LEVER LAW CASES.

INDICTMENTS NUMBER 1,499

Coal Operators and Dealers Will Be Prosecuted Vigorously—Enforcement of Prohibition to Be Undertaken in Earnest After Election.

By JAMES P. HORNADAY.

Washington.—The department of justice is beginning a concentrated drive to clear dockets all over the country of the 1,499 indictments obtained against merchants in food, fuel and wearing apparel for profiteering or violating the Lever law in some other way. The dockets of courts in nearly every state in the Union are crowded with these indictments, which have been carried over from the spring terms of court. No cases are pending in the District of Columbia.

Prohibition has caused a flood of cases brought for violation of the Volstead act, and these have tended to "crowd out" to a certain extent the profiteering indictments, hindering their trial. Every influence will be brought to bear by the department of justice, it is understood, to bring convictions on these indictments, and publish the results broadcast in the United States as a warning to merchants that no profiteering will be tolerated in wearing apparel, food or coal.

Out of a total number of 1,854 arrests for profiteering in fuel, wearing apparel and food, the department has secured indictments numbering 1,499. Out of this number only 151 sentences have thus far been imposed.

Department to Be Short-Handed.

One reason for speeding up the trials pending is that the department's bureau of investigation will be seriously hampered in its work through a loss of 50 per cent in the appropriation allotted to this work by the last congress. This shortage of funds, it was said, will result in the release of approximately one-third of the special agents who are securing evidence used in obtaining indictments for violation of the Lever law.

While the department contemplates a vigorous and renewed campaign against profiteers, both through its bureau of investigation and through the fair price committee in the United States, this work will be affected somewhat by the lack of funds.

A number of employees will have to be dropped, it is stated, but the present policy is to begin the cutting down from the lower positions, gradually working up to the high positions of authority until a sufficient number of employees have been released to continue the work with funds in hand.

The department is now preparing to prosecute in as many cases as possible operators and dealers who have profiteered in coal. A report by the federal trade commission, it was said, covers the ground sufficiently in the matter of investigation, and the department's activities will be directed along the line of securing indictments from the evidence gathered by the federal trade commission.

The Lever act under which most of the prosecutions are being made is being attacked by numerous defendants on the ground that it is unconstitutional. If it should fail the prosecutions would, of course, fall with it. Some portions of the act have already been declared worthless by district federal judges.

Have Not Stopped Profiteering.

The consensus of opinion here is that the efforts of the government, whether put forth in courts of justice or in an administrative way, have not served to bring down the cost of living. For nearly two years the department of justice has been trying to run down profiteers, but comparatively few offenders of this class have been convicted. In the meantime, government officials admit, profiteering has gone on as actively as though the government were not seeking convictions of this class of offenders. Students of the situation have been interested in the fact that reductions in the cost of living have come as a result of individual initiative rather than through any activity on the part of governmental agencies.

There is one class of offenders against the law of the land that the government will, inevitably, so it is asserted, move against in a vigorous way after the presidential election. The offenders referred to are the violators of the prohibition enforcing legislation. It is a notorious fact that in some of the larger cities this legislation is almost a dead letter. The enforcing organization of the government, which is attached to the revenue bureau, has failed to cope with the problem. The reason for this failure which the organization offers is lack of money. When congress gets back in December there will be a request for an appropriation of several million dollars for use in running down the violators of the prohibition law.

It is inevitable that the government must enforce prohibition legislation or take it off the statute books. From the foundation of the government federal laws have been enforced.

IT SOON RESCUED SUFFERING BOY FROM SICK BED

Nerv-Worth Worked Wonders In the Case of Youth Who Was Alarmingly Ill

At this time, when influenza and other serious diseases threaten the public health a record such as Mr. Warner gave a few days ago to Erie's Nerv-Worth druggist, has striking promise and value. These are his remarkable words:

Feisler's Drug Store — "My son, aged 16, was confined to his bed for several days. Burning up with fever, pulse running away and we were terribly alarmed about him. Could not keep anything on his stomach. Digestion bad and he coughed day and night. Was very weak and extremely nervous.

"I read of Nerv-Worth's merits in cases like this and I procured a bottle from you and gave it to my son as directed. That was a week ago. Now the boy is up, feeling fine. Appetite and digestion good and no more nervousness. Is gaining strength daily. Nerv-Worth was worth its weight in gold to him and we think it a miracle medicine and cheerfully recommend it. If anyone wants to know about Nerv-Worth call on us.

PRAISES HARDING'S WELFARE PROGRAM

"Senator Harding's address on social justice in which he proposed a Federal Department of Public Welfare, is the longest step and practicable proposal yet taken by any man of official responsibility," declares Hon. Simeon D. Fess, representative in Congress from Ohio.

"His program goes directly to the core of the problem and demands protection, first, of motherhood, by safeguarding maternity, then of childhood, by proper legislation, and through these, the national health against invasion of disease through low standards of morals and commercial aggression of industry, which exposes to epidemics," he said. "He recognizes social justice not as a woman's problem, but as a general problem, in which women play a larger part. Hence, his specific demands that women be placed on various boards, Federal and State, which have to deal with problems of employment, labor adjustment and wherever national health is to be determined. This concern must extend to women in agriculture, as well as industries.

"Senator Harding's sound common sense prevents his dealing in general theories at the expense of practical results. Alive to the dangers of bureaucracy, against which he warns, he asks for a reorganization of our departments at Washington which will be one of his earliest tasks, and recommends the creation of a department of Public Welfare, to have directions of the problem of social justice. This will prevent duplication of agencies by unifying a half dozen bureaus now doing a haphazard work into one responsible and responsive department of the government. This step carries a program of social justice from the stage of theoretical speculation to that of practical execution, and the country can expect immediate action along practical lines."

When a man arrives at the age where he would rather strut than work, he's going down hill.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

The Time of Heather.

The moors are purple with heather or—more strictly speaking—with ling, for by this time the real bell-heather is pretty nearly over.

Heathers of different kinds inhabit the high moorlands all the world over, in America, Africa and Asia, as well as in Europe. Our own ling may be seen flourishing in Newfoundland and also in New England.

Most people regard heather simply from the aesthetic standpoint, and never give a thought to its varied uses. But every year there is much cutting of heather for the purpose of broom making. Heather again, is an excellent material for thatching purposes, and properly put on a heather thatch will last a century.—John o' London's Weekly.

Road Claims Filed

Monday was the date fixed for the hearing of the claims for damages filed by property owners along the route of the East Liverpool and Youngstown road which is to be improved next year. A large number of claims were filed along what is known as the Bell schoolhouse route and in Clarkton. While no action das taken all three of the commissioners expresed themselves that if all these damages were insisted upon there would be no road built, or if built it would be by another route. Among the claims filed was one by the Clarkston Presbyterian church.

Stray Bond Coupons

County Treasurer W. E. Phillips discovered some children playing with coupons a day or two ago that looked so much like money that the kids were pretending that it was, and he examined them and found that they were real bond coupons of Montgomery county, calling for $27.50 interest on each. He made inquiry and found that the children had found them among some packing in dry-goods boxes. He wrote to the treasurer of that county at Dayton to ascertain if they were of any value. The coupons were regularly signed and looked to be legitimate.

Shorty runs into "Snapper" Teebo!

Atlanta,
Wednesday

Dear PETEY:

Checked up our old dormitory pal "Snapper" Teebo this morning waiting on an appointment down Peachtree St. "Snap" wanted to know a bookfull about my visit to the Camel factories. "Tell us old apple seed," says "Snapper", "you're on the inside"! "Snap" still has that mighty annoying way of saying, "But that doesn't surprise me."

Anyhow—when I explained about the millions of Camels R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. made daily what does the old bird sputter but: "Why, Shorty, they'd have to make that many to supply the demand! Camels have the quality smokers want! And, they have the most wonderful mellow mild body and the most refreshing flavor ever created in a cigarette! Of course they make Camels by millions; of course they buy enough revenue stamps from Uncle Sam every day to build a duplicate of the Winston-Salem post office! Why not? Smokers everywhere will have Camels!"

But, "Snap" finally got to spilling some real nobby Camel selling stuff! "Shorty," says he, "I want to put it on record that in all the times I've pulled Camels out of my pocket to supply somebody's shortage I've heard enough good things said about 'em to fill a volume! 'That's my brand'; 'Camels are a wonderful cigarette'. 'Like getting money from home,' etc.

"And, Shorty, what's the answer? Why—Camels blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos meets the universal taste! And that's the 'hole' story, old golf ball"!

Pete, you pet phonograph, did you ever hear a better record?

Camel Praises

Sincerely,

Shorty.

STATE NEWS

Schools and colleges of Ohio will have to begin equipping women teachers and instructors in manual training soon, according to Prof. E. S. Usry, of the industrial arts college at Ohio State university, who says men teachers are not taking up this work as they should, because salaries are not sufficient.

Prof. Usry sees no objection to women studying wood working to become teachers in manual training. He has one co-ed student at Ohio State now who has taken up this course and expects more to join as soon as they see that they can make good in this profession of service.

Did you know there was a state law against carrying on general conversations in the election booths on election day? Assistants in the office of Secretary of State Smith have discovered such a law, but it is said election officials have never had occassion to make use of it.

With so many new voters this year, including the great mass of women voters, it may be necessary for local election officials to call attention to this statute. Women gathering at the polls will no be allowed to stop to discuss neighborhood or affairs or the latest creation in women's dress. They will also be reminded that they can not only gossip in the booth but that this is also barred within a radius of 50 feet of the election booths. The little red flags placed outside the booths mark the distance which must be kept clear and no workers will be allowed inside the red flags. Voters are only supposed to speak in the election booths when they desire information about voting. Comment on the issues of the campaign or upon candidates is prohibited.

Stomach Out Of Order? Try NR

Nothing Better to Straighten You Out After Eating Too Much. Tones Liver, Regulates Bowels. Acts Pleasantly. Guaranteed.

Many people eat too much every day and most eat much too much some days. That is why Americans suffer more than any people in the world from indigestion, biliousness and constipation.

With a little thoughtfulness and care, however, a great amount of this distress could be avoided and you'll never realize how true this is until you become one of the several million people of this country who keep a box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) constantly on hand and use it whenever indigestion, biliousness or constipation threatens.

Unlike laxative purges, cathartics, such as oil, calomel, etc., which merely force bowel action, Nature's Remedy exerts a beneficial influence upon the entire digestive and eliminative system—the stomach, liver, bowels and even the kidneys. Its purpose is to promote vigorous and harmonious action of all the organs that handle the food and body waste.

That is why the results which follow the use of Nature's Remedy are always a delightful surprise to those who first try it. The action while prompt and thorough, is as mild and gentle and pleasant as Nature herself, and the thorough cleansing the body receives brings a feeling of real relief and benefit such as no laxative pill or cathartic ever produced for anyone.

THROAT SORE?

Then Watch Out for Diphtheria or Tonsilitis

The doctor often takes out unhealthy tonsils, because he knows they are liable to poison the system with deadly diseases. He will tell you that whenever bacteria inflame the membrane of the throat or tonsils, and make it feel sore, a danger signal is being flashed to your brain through the outraged nervous system.

You will find Krew-Pina excellent for quick relief in all cases of inflammation. For sore throat, apply to the throat and massage gently. Also, put a pinch in each nostril. Do this before retiring; then, draw the bed clothes up about the nose funnel-wise and inhale the medicinal vapors.

Krew-Pina is an ointment made up entirely of simple home remedies such as Oil of Pine and other volatile oils in a petroleum base—absolutely harmless and of wonderful alleviative and healing properties, owing to the scientific nicety with which the ingredients are proportioned. Specially adapted to household use in cases of colds, croup, bronchitis, neuralgia, whooping cough, sores, stiffness, cuts, bruises, sprains, etc. 30c and 60c jars with directions—at your druggist's.

Free Sample of Krew-Pina

REBELLION IN STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once ends Indigestion and Sour, Acid Stomach

Lumps of undigested food cause pain. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just take a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the pain, acidity, indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless stomach antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.

Uncle Walt's Story

By Walt Mason

THE DIFFERENCE

"I SAW you coming up the street and standing at the gate with Mr. Honeybug and Mr. Playfair," said Mrs. Jamesworthy. "All three of you were laughing so the whole neighborhood could hear you. I wonder why you do all the laughing with your friends, and do nothing but grumble and scowl at home. I haven't seen you laugh in the house in five years, as you laughed out there with those men."

"There's nothing in this house to laugh at," replied Jamesworthy. "Jim Honeybug is a good story-teller, and he was telling us a bully yarn, and for a brief season we forgot the burdens laid upon us, which are greater than we can bear. If you could tell a story as well as Honeybug does, I'd fill these ancestral halls with silvery laughter, but you never try to say anything amusing, Mrs. Jamesworthy. You do tell stories, but they are of a gloomy and tragic character.

"Last night, when I came home, you told a dramatic story to the effect that you had callers all afternoon, and didn't a chance to cook anything for me, and so I had to eat canned salmon and soda crackers, and wash them down with water, and I insist that when a husband comes home from his arduous labors in the clanging mart, so empty that his watch chain makes a clanking sound when it flaps against his spine, he should have warm victuals, something he can consume with pleasure and pride. The fact that you had an invasion of callers is a cheap excuse.

"My sainted mother never would have permitted any callers to interfere with her management of the cookstove. She realized that her old man kept the shebang going, and that he should have the right of way. If any old hens happened to be in the house when grub time approached, my mother would request them, firmly but respectfully, to chase themselves, and if they didn't like it they could lump it. When my father came home from his work, the hay was always in the manger for him, and he never had to wait five minutes for a meal.

"The day before yesterday, when I came staggering home, faint and weary from my herculean efforts to make both ends meet, you told me another story. It was to the effect that you had been downtown sizing up a shipment of new spring hats, just received at the millinery foundry, and you were so interested you forgot the lapse of time, and didn't get home in time to cook anything. But you flashed a winning smile at me, and said it wouldn't take you ten minutes to warm up a can of beans, and there was some cold coffee left from breakfast, and you had plenty of smoked herrings on hand.

"Doubtless I should have burst forth into boisterous laughter over this entertaining anecdote, but somehow it didn't appeal to my sense of humor. I was so busy that day I hadn't time to eat anything at noon, and all the way home I was hoping you would have a porterhouse steak about three inches thick, and a raft of boiled potatoes, and perhaps a slab of mince pie as an epilogue.

"The day before that, when I came home as hollow as a bass drum, and fairly gnashing my teeth with hunger, you related a humorous story to the effect that your club didn't adjourn on time that afternoon, and you didn't get home until late, so I would have to get along with a picked-up supper. If I would be patient a few minutes, you said, to make the story seem more spicy, you would boil an egg for me, and there was cold corn bread in the cupboard.

"Such stories, Mrs. Jamesworthy, may seem highly amusing to an innocent bystander, and I have no doubt they would make a great hit if written up and printed in London Punch, but there is something wrong with my sense of humor, or I am at the wrong end of the stories. Anyhow, I can't gurgle over them as I do over Honeybug's yarns."

His Status.

"That man is a human snake."

"Why, he is one of the big copper kings."

"Exactly what I said, only in other words. He's a copper head."

New Hair Growth After BALDNESS

On legal affidavit, John Hart Brittain, business man, certified to this: "My head at the top and back was absolutely bald. The scalp was shiny. An expert said that he thought the hair roots were extinct, and there was no hope of my ever having a new hair growth.

"Yet now, at an age over 66, I have a luxuriant growth of soft, strong, lustrous hair! No trace of baldness. The pictures shown here are from my photographs." Mr. Brittain certified further:

After hair growth.

INDIAN'S SECRET OF HAIR GROWTH

"At a time when I had become discouraged at trying various hair lotions, tonics, specialists' treatments, etc., I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian 'medicine man' who had an elixir that he asseverated would grow my hair. Although I had but little faith, I gave it a trial. To my amazement a light fuzz soon appeared. It developed, day by day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as prolific as in my youthful days.

That I was astonished and happy is expressing my state of mind mildly.

Obviously, the hair roots had not been dead, but were dormant in the scalp, awaiting the fertilizing potency of the mysterious pomade.

I negotiated for and came into possession of the principle for preparing this mysterious elixir, now called Kotalko, and later had the recipe put into practical form by a chemist.

That my own hair growth was permanent has been amply proved."

How YOU May Grow YOUR Hair

It has been proved in very many cases that hair roots did not die even when the hair fell out through dandruff, fever, alopecia areata or certain other hair or scalp disorders. Miss A. D. Otto reports: "About 8 years ago my hair began to fall out until my scalp in spots was almost entirely bald. I used everything that was recommended but was always disappointed until at last I came across Kotalko. My bald spots are being covered now; the growth is already about three inches." G. W. Mitchell reports: "I had spots completely bald, over which hair is now growing since I used Kotalko." Mrs. Matilda Maxwell reports: "The whole front of my head was as bald as the palm of my hand for about 15 years. Since using Kotalko, hair is growing all over the place that was bald." Many more splendid reports from satisfied users.
